Short term web site address change.

Reminder. I will stop producing the newsletter in its current form at the end of the year. I will only be producing a simple message about activities via email.

For the few of you without email, I will copy the notice and send you a hard copy or you could get an email address to use with your cell phone. I'll also bring copies to our activities.

Sorry, but my hands are giving way and the pain is taking over.

AND, with postage going up again, the cost is becoming prohibitive.
